“Jessica,

Thank you very, very much. You have given me several hints that reinforce what I had already started to do. R always comes through. And with your help, he has again.

Again, thanks. --M.D 06/11/13”

“Wow!! Thank you very much for your reading and answers! I appreciate your help; this reading is very accurate and awe-inspiring. I will definitely call upon the Goddesses and Archangels to help me. Sending you blessings and love! D.B 06/11/13”

“Dear Jessica,

Thank you so very much for your reading regarding my marriage situation. I have been so confused for the past few months about what to do so I gave up trying to figure it out on my own and turned to you for help. I was amazed at how your answers were right on point - it brought tears to my eyes. You saved my marriage and helped me to open my eyes and realize my surroundings that I had been ignoring for quite some time. Had I not asked you for help, I would have walked away from my marriage of 7 years and would've walked into a very nasty situation. Thank you so very much and most importantly my family thanks you!!

M.G. 05/11/13”

“Dear Jess,

Thanks so much for the reading you recently did for me. Your psychic abilities are incredibly awesome and you are truly gifted.

When things you told me started coming true, I was floored! I called my sister and mother everytime something you mentioned in my reading came true. They were jaw-dropping, eye-popping moments. I will highly recommend you to anyone who is looking for a psychic/clairvoyant.

Thanks again!

“Your reading yesterday was very accurate. Your spirit guides pinpointed areas that I myself am vaguely aware of. Thank you so much. ” R. G. 02/08/13

“My reading with Jessica was is truly amazing! The greatest part of the reading was the compassion she delivered along with accurate facts, and gentle information that had me in tears! Jessica was RIGHT on target with her information which left me feeling very confident in her work!! I was not confused with her messages! For me that was very important! Jessica’s gifts are REAL and above all filled with LOVE, LIGHT, and hope! I thank her for my reading and all the great information everyday! TWO THUMBS WAY UP!!! 😊” Sarah 01/25/13

“I just want to thank you for the reading you gave me Jessica! You gave me advice and insight on not only the questions I had but you also answered questions I didn’t ask you! Your insight was wonderful–

you are a very kind, compassionate POSITIVE person! I can't thank you enough!" T.T 01/08/13

"Jessica's reading was just what I needed and was very reassuring. I highly recommend her. One thing that was really interesting about her reading (which was by email) was that she gave me certain advice during the reading that was absolutely what I needed to hear at the very time she wrote down was the start time of the reading. When I got my email and thought back on what was happening to me at the time she was doing the reading, it applied so neatly I was amazed. Receiving the reading also opened me up to being more in tune psychically and with my intuition – for example, after the reading, I told a relative via phone about something Jessica had said that made sense to me about a really sensitive topic. How my relative responded to what I said bothered me, and when the call was over, I was thinking of why it bothered me. This relative called me again and said exactly what I needed to hear to feel at ease with what she had said during the first call, which helped let go of the negative thoughts I was having about my situation. It is as if my guides or an angel prompted this relative to say what I needed to hear right when I needed to hear it – and it supported the reading Jessica had given me. Then, later that same night, I felt the presence of the archangel Jessica had recommended I call on for help. Many years ago I was in a room where a psychic medium said she felt this archangel in the room. What I perceived then many years ago now I vividly remember but I have never felt it again until after Jessica suggested I call on this archangel – I was in a church service listening to a sermon that related to yet another part of my reading and I felt this wonderful sense that the archangel was there enjoying the message and pleased that I was connecting the dots. I will definitely request additional readings in the future!" Heather 12/17/12

"Hi Jessica, Just wanted to say thank you soooo much, for providing me with that reading. I really felt like I needed a little validation on certain things and this reading provided that for me." B 12/03/12

"Hi Jessica, Thank you for the reading. I really enjoyed it and resonated with it too. I am feeling that I am track now more too." S. 11/27/12

"The first thing I thought of when reviewing the reading you sent to me was WOW – Jessica is really good to be able to pickup the things she did about my career, family budget, and health. Things were said that there was no way she could have known the facts. I really appreciate her insight and it was well worth the money spent! I'll be sure to follow up with you on your predictions and use your services again." M.A. 10/24/12

"I had reached a critical juncture in my life in terms of work, family and spiritual fulfillment and I really needed some help and guidance. I came across Jess' website by chance and new straight away when I saw her that she could be that guiding light I was looking for. She did not dissappoint, with a reading that was right on tune. It gave me the answers I was searching for, but already knew in my heart. Her reading was extremely accurate and demonstrated to me that she was clearly acting as a conduit for a higher form of consciousness. Thank you again Jess." Peace to You, D.M 10/23/12

"Jessica's reading was very accurate concerning my direction in life, things I needed to work on and even confirmed a conversation I had had with my husband regarding something very specific. If you are looking for an affirmation or guidance she is a trustworthy person too seek if from". Karen 10/23/12

“Jessica: I want to thank you so much for the incredible reading you gave me! I gave you such little information about me, and yet everything you told me about my life, desires, outcomes, etc was SO accurate—not vague (like some other readings I've received in the past). You have a very special gift, and I feel blessed to have stumbled upon you via the internet. :) You have a sweet, kind soul—a very special person. And I want to thank you again for reminding me to breathe, and after all these years remind me of my own talents and gifts. I had forgotten the power I have within myself (and with God) and you reminded me to start using it again. I already see positive changes happening in my life! :) Thank you again!" Tami 08/04/12

"My reading from Jess was amazing! I probably would have never believed someone could be this accurate if it didn't happen to me.....and all I did was send her an email with my name! Jess is truly gifted!" -Doug S. 05/29/12

"Thank you so much! All I can say is WOW!!!!!! I can not say thank you enough! Again THANK YOU! Simply Amazing!!!" V.T. 05/15/12

"I just had a one question reading done. Oh my! Never underestimate the power of a one question reading with Jess. It zeroed in on my question and gave a descriptive answer—not just a one line response. Jess told me everything I needed to know, and then some! She definitely comes from a place of integrity and caring. I will be back for more! If you want to brighten someone's life-give them the gift of Jessica." Mary 5/10/12

"I was super impressed by my reading with Jess! I asked five questions, without giving any detail behind them and she answered them as if she knew my whole life story. Incredibly accurate, extremely compassionate, down to earth and very refreshing! Her prices are Excellent – the information I received for that price was just crazy good! I highly recommend Jess for a reading for yourself or as a gift! I LOVED my reading and have already recommended Jessica to my friends! 😊 Michelle – NJ Reading done March 16, 2012"

"Thank you – fast response – great service – great communication! Really Helpful!" Joy 03/09/12

"She's so dead on! I never knew an email reading could be this good! Jess channeled my Spirit Guide team, my recently departed Grandmother, and used her gifts to figure out everything I was currently going through. Right away, she identified some abnormalities in my aura that I were negatively impacting me and gave me steps to take to become more grounded. Knowledge is power, and she was able to elevate me in a way that I know I will receive a lot of growth and progress in my intuitive development. She has given me A LOT of information, but what I love about it is that she gave me the necessary advice and steps to do something with that information. It really was the best reading I've ever had. I'm so excited to work with what she's provided me and I will definitely be working with Jess again!"

I just want to ask you if the new man could be someone with the same description you gave me, likes to travel, light-brown hair, lighter skin, french, but he is a businessmen. Because I heard his name like one month before meeting him and then I met him in France. My actual boyfriend is a professor of social sciences, could be mixed or the french guy I met is not the new one?

[In response to the reading after being tested. He was skeptical at first.] "Well..... That's a pretty cool trick (giggling). I mean that as a complement. It just so happens that I sued a restaurant 3 years ago and the case is in It's final stage in federal court. It will most likely settle out of court. I expect to win the case with all of the evidence on my side. I am pretty sure the opponent knows their impending defeat.

The amount of money will be substantial. You are right, I need to chill out and be more positive. Thank you . Peace and love.... James." 01/06/12

"I really don't appreciate psychics, they seem to me more like occultists who practice demonic arts and that they trick people for gains. But my curiosity hungers for what these psychics really do when my mom and dad start explaining to me how our business bloomed over the help of some psychic. I want to know if it is all just a hoax or their methods are real. That is why I tried it out and my choice was Jessica Caracciolo, a much respected psychic. Indeed if you see her she seems to be really unusual. There is something in her that I really could not explain. I was really awed when she told me my past just by looking at me. She also told me that luck is indeed in my favor but still needs to be improved. I assure you her skills in this field are very exceptional. I am a better person now because I have become more open minded because of her guidance. I heard she can also help find lost items and there are no doubts, even individuals. Most of the time, if I am having difficulties with my decision making I ask her opinion about it, and gladly her answer is very good. You may contact her at (617) 394-8313 or you may visit her website thru <http://www.intuitiveexpressions.moonfruit.com>. She will gladly attend to your needs. Her office is located at Everett, Massachusetts 02149" Testimonial found online at random. Click here.

"Anyone who is looking for a little guidance with their life should check out jessica for a reading. I have had several different types and found that each one offers a little different perspective on my life or on my questions. I have found them to be overall very accurate and I know from past readings, the future things she talks about generally come true! I am already looking forward to the next reading I get from Jess. There are so many things I want to ask about 😊 Mary 10/11/11"

"Hi Jess, I said we will see. Well, you were spot on. My journey from England to the Ukraine went smoothly but, more importantly, the lady I met was fantastic. I was totally relaxed from the word go and ,as you suggested, felt an instant soul mate connection. I do not know how you do it but keep up the good work. Regards, Paul" October 10, 2011

"Lovely lady 2 deal with. She read me specially my relationship accurately! 5star" -Marcelle 08/09/11

"Thanks for my reading this morning Jessica! it was great. If anyone is thinking about having a reading with you they should not think about it just do it, they won't be sorry. We connected so well and you knew exactly what I was thinking. For so many years, I've felt alone and boy did you prove me otherwise, now I don't know what to do with the amount of angels and arch angels and guides that are around "ME" waiting for me to call on them. I'm going to have a party!!!! It's not enough to say thank you, so I'll bow my head and say "Namaste" which means, "the spirit in me respects the spirit in you". We'll speak soon!!!!" Tracey G. 08/06/11

"Jessica! WOW!!! This reading is amazing!!! Especially the name "MICK!" Thank you for a very insightful reading! You are truly very gifted!" MARY N. 😊 [07/18/11]

“Wonderful & very insightful; look forward to working with Jessica again” Nikki 07/18/11

“There are no words to explain this memorable moment!” Kim 07/09/11

“Jess was accurate and very pleasant to communicate with.” Jannat 06/11/11

“Wonderful! And completely dead on with her reading. Highly recommended! 😊” Krista 06/09/11

“Jess is a well kept secret treasure! I had a medical intuitive reading done on my daughter. Jess gave me directions and suggestions of resources to try as well as zeroing in on my daughter’s specific needs. I can’t wait to get started on trying her ideas...they are all logical and seem to ‘feel’ right to me!;-)” Mary B. 06/08/11

“I am extremely pleased with my experience with Jessica. From the very quick response time (much faster than anticipated) to the communication updates, everything went very smoothly. But the best thing was the reading itself. I just get the feeling that Jessica got to the heart of the matter and explained things well. Not sure how accurate the reading was (only time will tell, right?) but she did confirm a lot of things my intuition was telling me.... and that was very reassuring to me, and I truly believe she would not hesitate to tell me things I didn’t want to hear. That speaks to her integrity.

As a result of this, I plan on continuing to use her services. Actually, I don’t even think of it as services. It’s more like asking for advice from a friend who ‘gets’ me.” – Stewart 05/21/11 [Reading done 5/18/11]

“I’ve had two readings from Jessica and she is amazingly accurate. Whenever I doubt or need more “insight” in making important decisions, Jessica’s reading help validate my instincts and give inner peace. Really enjoy the messages from my spiritual guides. I can really hear them via Jessica’s email readings. There is no question that my family members are with me.

Thank you Jessica for being here and your generosity”. – Lori May 4, 2011 [Reading done March 30, 2011]

“Skeptical at first- Awesome Reading! Thank you, Thank you!” – Kristina 04/28/11 [Reading done 04/28/11]

“Thank you so much for the reading, Jess! Very inspiring. Its also nice to know that I am not the only one who feels like this at work! I do think its some kind of energetic shift. People aren’t afraid to change their lives or take things in a different direction when their unhappy. I have waited months for this, I’ve been unhappy for quite some time at this job and I just can’t do it anymore. I feel confident in doing this even without a job lined up. My angels have showed me so many signs that YES I should be doing this...and your right...every time I ask them for help they really do help me 😊

I’m so glad I found your website and got a reading from you....you are very accurate, kind hearted and the answers were quick and true! I truly appreciate the quick turnaround for answers, I have been desperate for some kind of answer or insight on this situation.” – Thank you again, Susan 04/27/11

“Jessica’s reading was VERY accurate!! She spends time in my salon doing readings and exercising her talent. Clients of the salon have had her readings and have expressed their gratitude and amazement of her accuracy. My personal reading gave me insight to whats to come and gave explanations for the things that have happened in the past. It was great to know that my Nana was watching over me and guiding me through life. THANK YOU!” Crystal L. (Owner of Vanity Hair Salon; Everett MA) 04/21/11

“I originally contacted Jess to do a medical intuitive reading on my daughter. After many tests, the doctors didn’t have any definite answers as to what was wrong. It was very frustrating because the symptoms still remained. I provided Jess with only my daughter’s name and a picture, and she was able to pinpoint where the problem was coming from. I was amazed as I had given her no indication as to what was ailing my daughter. She also gave me advice on how to address the problem. I was so impressed with Jess’ ability to see what was going on that I asked her to read for 10 more members of my family, including myself. Again, with nothing more to go on but pictures and names, Jess was able to let me know what each person needed to address. She is a truly gifted individual and has a very generous spirit. Thank you, Jess! “- Kelly W. 12/11/10

My heartfelt thanks to you, Jess. Not only for answering my questions, but for being the real deal. Very good intuition. Thank you very much 😊 12/08/10

“Reiki experience I would highly recommend for anyone who would like to welcome in the holiday season and bring in positive energy. I would definitely consider going to more sessions in the near future.- The reading was encouraging I loved the part in the group, that I’m flowing and fairies love me and I can talk with them anytime and take care of earth and they’ll like that. Important to take care of me right now – that’s why I enjoyed the Reiki. That is taking care of me time. Each and everyone of us get stronger from challenges.” Sharon F. 12/03/10

“Jessica is not only the real deal but she is also a total sweetheart. I sought her help through a medical intuitive reading. I wasn't expecting much but I was in awe when I received her reading. She knew exactly what was wrong with me. I was very impressed, especially since I never told her anything about my health problems... The only thing she knew about me was my name and what I looked like because I had sent her a picture. She always takes the time to answer any question I have about a reading. Through her actions, I can tell that she truly wants to help others and cares about the well-being of her clients. She is truly gifted and never dissapoints. Thank you for caring Jess, You are a wonderful person.”

“This was a great experience! Jess has an amazing gift. I received an email reading and as soon as I opened it, the first couple words had to do with my main reason for having this reading to begin with. I was in awe 😊 She is very accurate and though I am still putting together other parts of this “puzzle”, most of the reading hit home. I will definitely be using Jessica’s services again. She is very cool and down to earth, which made this process so comfortable. I really appreciate how she cleared up some points after the fact by answering my questions. I didn’t expect this. I have already started recommending her 😊 Thank you again!” Cynthia

"I was thinking, my mom must have been curious who is this 'gwai lo' trying to connect with her when you did. Fact is, she loved travelling, had travelled many places and met many people outside of Singapore. And I know she would be keen to connect if given the chance to, even if or especially through someone not from here. My only claim to any psychic ability is knowing what's in my fridge for dinner, so finding a special person like you with such incredible powers who can help me 'see' my beloved late mom is not only amazing – how do you do it from all that distance! – it is also a blessing.

You seemed very able to give readings to the general public. You can do psychic readings at the Theosophical Society anytime you want. Good luck in your future endeavors. -Walter Ness (Theosophical Society of Boston)Random reading sent 10/08/08

All I did was open up my heart and BE with the universe... I know it may sound funky- but the reality of sitting there letting myself feel free and just relaxing letting myself listen to the noises around me and the pressures and sensation of my body sitting down and feeling the air and heartbeat..... Being this open and receptive to the world is a beautiful thing, and to communicate that level of expression to the spirits while experiencing a reading can create powerful results with the answers recieved and communicated, especially this time through Jess’s words and card spread. She’s very clever and theres an innocence and honesty to her soul and way of being with us that is soothing and warrant of my trust in her connection and expression of the Source. She’s right on cue with every card and detail she laid out to me, and made sure to check in on me throughout the process... it was really cool... Much love to you chica!!! ~Theo B Jr 8-8-08

Dear Jessica,

Thank you for the reading you presented to me via email in June. You know I can be skeptical at times of these types of things but I have to say your reading was very accurate in a lot of areas, some of which I didn't realize until recently so I had to let you know.

I am in fact going through a career transition and didn't even know this at the time of the reading. My company is laying off all of the field staff this week and I will need to re-apply for a new position. This situation has forced me to have to think through where I am and where I've come from and where I want to go. I also have been getting back to a previous writing project that someone recently has motivated me to pick up again, another thing that hadn't happened yet and that you mentioned in the reading.

One of the other areas you were accurate on is that I wasn't taking care of myself. Since the reading I have taken your recommendation and changed my eating habits and have been walking on a treadmill and swimming 5 mornings a week and I feel much better. There are so many other things too. And you were able to connect with all of this with me not being physically anywhere near you. I'm all the way across the country.

Bottom line is I have had my cards read a few times in the past by various people and what makes your readings stand out as special is that you don't just give the reading but you give guidance through the issues and situations. You recommend what to do to improve one's health you don't just say you're not taking care of yourself. You explain the benefits of and how to meditate, the importance of recognizing what one is going through and why, you talked about the 100 things going on at once in my head and how settling my mind would benefit me and a few ways to accomplish that. I found your reading motivating and I felt empowered by your guidance and recommendations. I was truly impressed with the whole process.

Even though you know me in many ways you don't know what's going on with me in my daily life and couldn't possibly have guessed at what you said. I was amazed and am still finding more to be true as some time has passed. Thank you again for taking the time for me.

Be well,

Kathy
